- 10.3 All Service Calls will be allocated a unique tracking number to which the Customer should refer in all future calls in relation to the fault throughout the resolution process.
- 10.4 Only authorised personnel may make Service Calls to the Company's support desk and such Service Calls do not require any form of written confirmation. Notwithstanding the following, the Customer will be obliged to pay Additional Charges should the quality of the information provided in a Service Call prove to be misleading.
- 10.5 In the event that the Customer requests a system to be shut down remotely, such request must be made to the Company's support desk by authorised personnel and the Company will only be obliged to action such shut down if confirmed in writing by authorised personnel. Any requirement for the Company to instigate a system reset for whatever reason will also require prior written approval from authorised personnel prior to implementation.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPORT AGREEMENT

- 10.6 The Company support desk requires the Customer to provide remote access to all Equipment and Software which must be available 24 hours a day for the operation of Support which will primarily be used to interrogate the system configuration, to aid problem analysis, to reset the system or modify the system configuration for problem workaround. The Customer hereby agrees that this facility may also be used by the Company for transmission of software updates and maintenance releases to Customer Sites.
- 10.7 The Customer will provide the Company with 7 days prior written notice of any proposed changes to any login procedures or networking changes which may affect system performance.
- 10.8 The Customer shall communicate to the Company upon the date hereof the identity of the persons or the department within its undertaking at the Site who shall act as the sole contact point and channel of communication for the provision by the Company of the Support during the period of this Contract. The Customer shall forthwith inform the Company of any change in the identity of such persons or department in writing.

11 RECORDS AND MEETINGS

- 11.1 For the period of this Contract, the Company shall maintain records of its performance against the targets set out in the SLA and the parties hereto shall meet at least once each year or as specified in schedule A, at a time to be agreed for discussing the same.
- 11.2 For all Severity 1 faults a written report will be provided by the Company to the Customer within 3 working days, detailing the nature of the problem, the course of action taken and any recommendations to prevent future occurrence.

12 TERM AND TERMINATION

- 12.1 This Contract shall commence on the Commencement Date and subject to earlier termination in accordance with this Clause shall continue in force for the Initial Contract Period and thereafter for further periods equal to the Contract Period
- 12.2 The contract may be terminated at the end of the Initial Contract Period or at the end of any subsequent Contract Period by either party providing notice to the other in writing by recorded delivery 90 days prior to the Anniversary Date.
- 12.3 This Contract may be terminated or suspended at the Company's sole option forthwith by the Company if the Customer fails to pay the Support Charges or any Additional Charges due on the due date therefore. In the event of such suspension, the Customer shall remain liable to continue to make payment of all Support Charges or Additional Support Charges due or to become due under the terms of this Contract
- 12.4 This Contract may also be terminated:-
- 12.4.1 Subject to Clause 12.6 forthwith by either party if the other commits any material breach of any term of this Contract which breach is either incapable of remedy or (if capable of remedy) is not remedied within 28 days of written notice having been given to remedy such breach;
- 12.4.2 Either party provides materially inaccurate or misleading facts or information in connection with the Contract; or

- 12.4.7 Either party is unable to pay their debts
- 12.5 Any termination of this Contract pursuant to this Clause 12 shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies a party may be entitled to hereunder or at law and shall not affect any accrued rights or liabilities of either party nor the coming into or continuance in force of any provisions hereof which it is expressly or by implication intended to come into or continue in force on or after such termination.
- 12.6 The Customer undertakes with the Company that promptly upon becoming aware of the same it shall notify the Company in writing of any claim or claims it may have against the Company under this Contract specifying such reasonable details as shall then be available in relation to the event or default to which the claim relates.
- 12.7 If the Company receives written notice from the Customer of any breach by the Company of the representations and warranties contained in Clause 8.1 the Company shall have the right at its own expense to remedy that breach within 28 days following receipt of such notice failing which the Customer shall be entitled to pursue such rights and remedies as are available to it.

13 NON SOLICITATION OF EMPLOYEES

- 13.1 Each of the parties hereto covenants with the other that for the period of this Contract and for 12 calendar months following its termination it will not directly or indirectly induce or attempt to induce any employee of the other party who has been engaged in the provision, receipt, review or management of the Support or otherwise been involved in connection with this Contract to leave the employment of that other party.
- 13.2 The Company estimates the impact that a breach of Clause 13.1 would have upon its business which is herein specified as liquidated damages in the amount of one times the current gross annual salary of the personnel concerned. The Customer accepts that this is a reasonable estimate of the loss and agrees to pay the same upon demand in the event of its breach of Clause 13.1. The Customer may demand and the Company may pay similar damages in the event of the Company's breach of Clause 13.1.
- 13.3 Nothing in this Clause 13 shall prejudice the right of the non breaching party to seek injunctive relief.

14 FORCE MAJEURE

- 14.1 Subject to due compliance with Clause 15.2 neither party shall be liable to the other for any delay or non performance of its obligations under this Contract arising from any cause or causes beyond its reasonable control. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the following shall be regarded as causes beyond the Company's reasonable control:-
- 14.1.1 Act of God, explosion, flood, tempest, fire or accident;
- 14.1.2 War or threat of war, sabotage, insurrection, civil disturbance or requisition;

- 14.1.7 Power failure or break down in machinery.
- 14.1.8 Difficulties in obtaining raw materials, labour, fuel, parts or machinery;
- 14.2 In the event of either party being so delayed or prevented from performing its obligations such party shall:-
 - 14.2.1 Give notice in writing of such delay or prevention to the other party as soon as reasonably possible stating the date the problem occurred and extent of such delay or prevention the cause thereof and its estimated duration;
 - 14.2.2 Use all reasonable endeavours to mitigate the effects of such delay or prevention upon the performance of its obligations under this Contract; and;
 - 14.2.3 Resume performance of its obligations as soon as reasonably practicable after the removal of the cause of the delay or prevention.

15 HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK

- 15.1 It is a condition of any Contract that any information which may have been supplied by the Company about the use for which the Equipment are designed and have been tested about the results of any relevant tests and about conditions necessary to ensure that the Equipment will be safe and without risk to health when properly used are publicised or displayed by the Customer and that specification of the Equipment contained in trade categories or circulars are made known by the Customer to those persons who will use the Equipment.

16 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

- 16.1 Each party agrees and undertakes to the other that during the period of this Contract and thereafter it will keep confidential all and will not use for its own purposes nor without the prior written consent of the other disclose to any third party any information of a confidential nature (including trade secrets and information of commercial value) which may have become known to such party from the other party and which relates to the other party or any of its Affiliates unless such information is public knowledge or already known to such party at the time of disclosure or subsequently becomes public knowledge other than by breach of this Contract or subsequently becomes lawfully into the possession of such party from a third party
- 16.2 Intellectual property rights existing in any tools made for the provision of the Support for the Customer shall remain the property of the Company notwithstanding that the Customer may have been charged with part of the cost of such tools.
- 16.3 The Customer shall take all such steps as shall be necessary to protect all and any confidential information of the Company which comes into its possession and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing shall not copy or reproduce the same nor distribute, sell or disclose the contents of the same to any third party without the prior written consent of the Company.
- 16.4 The Customer undertakes to the Company to make its employees, agents and subcontractors aware of the provisions of this clause 16 and to use its reasonable endeavours to ensure compliance by its said employees, agents and subcontractors with its obligations hereunder.
- 16.5 All copyright and intellectual property rights in the Support are and will remain vested in the Company and the Customer agrees that it will not claim any proprietary rights thereto.
- 16.6 The provisions of Clause 16.1 shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any termination of this Contract.

17 MISCELLANEOUS

- 17.1 The Customer shall be responsible for compliance with all relevant laws and regulations and for obtaining and maintaining at its expense any consent or other authorisations and permits required in connection with the Support.
- 17.2 This Contract, the Schedules and the documents annexed hereto or otherwise referred to herein constitute the entire Contract between the parties as to the matters to which it relates and supersedes all previous Contracts between the parties and may only be varied by written agreement of the parties. All prior representations or statements made before this Contract was entered into and not expressly repeated in it are withdrawn and of no effect.
- 17.3 The Company may perform its obligations hereunder through agents or subcontractors; the Contract may be assigned by the Company but shall not be assigned by the Customer (except in the case of the Customer's existing affiliate Companies) without the Company's prior written consent. References herein to the Company include references to any assignee of the Company's rights or obligations under this Contract.
- 17.4 A notice to be given hereunder by either party to the other may be served personally upon the other or by sending the same by recording delivery post addressed to the Company Secretary in the case of the Company at its registered office and in the case of the Customer at its registered office or Site address or last known address.
- 17.5 If any provision of this Contract is held by any Court or other competent authority to be void or unenforceable in whole or in part, the Contract shall continue to be valid as to the remaining provisions.
- 17.6 Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that in entering into this Contract it does not rely on and shall have no remedy in respect of any statement or representation or warranty (whether negligently or innocently made) of any person (whether party to this Contract or not) other than as expressly set out in this Contract. The only remedy available to it shall be for breach of contract under the terms of this Contract. Nothing in this Clause shall, however, operate to limit or exclude any liability for fraud.
- 17.7 This Contract and these conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and both the Company and the Customer shall submit to the non exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
- 17.8 Is not intended that any third party should be entitled to enforce terms of this Contract (unless otherwise expressly so provided) purely by virtue of the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999
- 17.9 As defined by the Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment (WEEE) regulations 2006, IPI are a distributor of B2B EEE who is not a manufacturer, importer or brand owner and as such, IPI has no obligations for disposal of EEE provided or WEEE replaced.
